

Rosewood Private Investments
Announces
StationServ's Add-on Acquisitions

December 6th, 2022 | Dallas, TX – Rosewood Private Investments (“RPI” or “Rosewood”) is pleased to announce four recent add-on acquisitions to its petroleum equipment sales and services portfolio company, StationServ Holdings (“StationServ”).

Established in 1969 and based in Monroe, LA, Perry and Sons is an equipment distributor specializing in equipment and parts sales, construction, service, and environmental compliance testing for the petroleum and industrial sectors.

Parish Petroleum’s construction offerings for petroleum systems include the total removal and installation of tanks, piping, electrical and other general construction items to provide a single point of contact for their customer’s construction and renovation needs.

B&J Equipment was established in 1966 as a service station equipment company and Gilbarco distributor. The Longview, TX, based business provides sales, service, and installation for a wide range of petro/c-store equipment customers.

Titus Pump specializes in aboveground and underground installation and removal of storage tanks and piping, as well as environmental services including line testing, remediation, and water removal.

StationServ has completed six acquisitions in 2022 with each one complementing the portfolio by bringing an outstanding combination of talented personnel and valuable assets that extends the platform’s service capabilities and geographic scope deeper into Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Tennessee, and Mississippi.

About StationServ:

Established in 2021 with RPI’s acquisitions of Petroleum Equipment Company (“PECO”) and American Petroleum (“AMPET”), StationServ is RPI’s holding company for businesses involved in the service, installation, distribution, and repair of fuel equipment.

About Rosewood Private Investments:
