

Rosewood Private Investments Announces Eagle Fire's Acquisition of Building Systems Technology, Inc.

January 5th, 2023 | Dallas, TX – Rosewood Private Investments' ("Rosewood" or "RPI") portfolio company, Eagle Fire Inc. ("Eagle Fire"), is pleased to announce the acquisition of Building Systems Technology, Inc., ("BST").

BST provides design, equipment, install, service, inspection, and integration of fire alarms and life safety equipment primarily in Tennessee and Alabama.

Ray Clarke, President/CEO of Eagle Fire, said, "The acquisition of BST not only comes with an amazingly strong team and service offering, but also greatly expands our footprint with BST's 6 offices located in Tennessee and Alabama - states in which Eagle has a limited presence today."

President of BST, Tony Lewis, said, "We are excited to partner with Eagle Fire and Rosewood Private Investments. Our future is assured by combining the talent, strength, experience and expertise of our companies, along with our unequalled offering of products, design support and technical support services. This partnership will not only provide greater offerings for our existing customer base, but it will also allow us to respond to the already expected growth that is forecast for the entire Southeast United States."

Derry Burns, Director of RPI, said, "This new partnership with BST is a strategic move for Eagle Fire to further expand its reach, capabilities, and competitive advantages in the Southeast. It has been exciting to support Eagle Fire as it continues its rapid growth and builds out its capabilities to better serve the needs of its customers."
